AN ALLEGED MURDERER DISCHARGED.

Prederick Perkins, who, it was alleged, caused the death of Pelix Pox, some time ago, by pushing him backward out of the door of the engine house at Stapleton, and who was discharged by the Doroner's jury on the ground that there was no evidence against him, but who was afterwards rearrested on the charge of murder, on chargesy made by Fox's Triends, and locked up in the County Jail at Richmond, had a long hearing at Police Headquarters yesterday, with able counsel on both sides. Finally the District Attorney, Mr. Rawson, accepted the proposition that, at most, perkins was only guilty of manslaughter in the fourth degree, and the prisoner was discharged from custody upon giving bonds for $1,000 to await the action of the Grand Jury, which will meet at Richmond Village on the second Tuesday of next month. The general sapposition is that Fox lell from the steps of the building while very drunk, and thus broke his skull, and that this was the cause of his death.

SCALDED TO DEATH.

Coroner Keenan was notified yesterday of the eath, at Bellevue Hospital, of Ann Higgins, a native of Ireland, 71 years of age, who was accibetween Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth streets, about seventeen weeks ago. The unfortunate woman received her injuries through the upsetting of a boiler full of hot water which she was endeavoring to lift from a stove. Her sufferings had been intense, and they were greatly aggravated by her extreme age.
